

Snell & Wilmer

Sarah Lazzaro

Associate | Orange County

Tel. 714.427.7511

slazzaro@swlaw.com

Main Bio

Sarah Lazzaro is a commercial litigation attorney in the Orange County office.

Education

- University of Virginia School of Law (J.D.)
 - Virginia Journal of Social Policy and the Law, Editorial Board
 - Domestic Violence Project, Policy Chair and Vice President
 - Pro Bono Challenge Award
 - Virginia Law Women
 - Jewish Law Student Association
 - Latin American Law Organization
- California State University, Fullerton (B.A., History, Political Science Minor, summa cum laude)
 - Debate Team, Public Forum and Policy
 - UNICEF USA Campus Initiative, Chapter Co-Founder and President
 - The Welebaethan, Journal of History, Editorial Board

Professional Memberships & Activities

- Orange County Bar Association

Community Involvement

- UCI Law Pro Bono Program, U-Visa Project Volunteer (2023-Present)
- Public Law Center, Family Law Unit, Law Student Volunteer

Previous Professional Experience

- National Organization for Women, Virginia Chapter, Virginia Audit Project, Intern (2023)
- University of Virginia School of Law, Research Assistant to Professor Amanda Frost (2022-2023)
- Snell & Wilmer, Summer Associate (2022)
- University of Virginia School of Law, First Amendment Clinic (2021-2022)
- America's Law Group, Immigration Law Clerk (2021)

- United States District Court, Central District of California, Judicial Extern to Hon. Stephen V. Wilson (2020)
- The Paragon Agency, Freelance Company Writer (2018-2019)
- Speech & Debate Coach, ACLA/QD Learning (2016-2018)
- The Paragon Agency, Intern (2015-2018)

Bar Admissions

- California

Court Admissions

- Supreme Court of California