

SNELL & WILMER PARTNER RONALD W. MESSERLY JOINS BTI CLIENT SERVICE ALL-STARS 2010

PHOENIX (January 27, 2010) — Snell & Wilmer L.L.P. is pleased to announce that Ronald W. Messerly, a partner in the firm's construction law practice group, has been named a 2010 BTI Client Service All-Star.

The BTI Client Service All-Stars is a select group of attorneys recognized by BTI Consulting Group as delivering the best in client service. For 2010, only 165 attorneys in the country were selected to be on this list. In its report, BTI states:

“These 165 BTI Client Service All-Stars are identified solely and exclusively by corporate counsel. No law firm or attorney can submit a name or pay to be included on this list. No firm can nominate an attorney or submit client names. The only possible path to The BTI Client Service All-Stars is an unprompted, unequivocal recommendation from corporate counsel.”

To establish the 2010 All-Star list, BTI conducted more than 250 individual interviews with corporate counsel from large and Fortune 1000 companies to probe at all aspects of client relationships. The survey assesses market opportunities, changing client needs and client experiences with their law firms and attorneys. The full report is available online at www.bticlientserviceallstars.com.

Messerly's practice is concentrated in construction and design law, insurance law, government contracting, and complex real estate development transactions. He has extensive experience representing participants in every phase of the construction process including public and private property owners and developers, general contractors, subcontractors, suppliers, design professionals, sureties, and insurers.
