

SNELL & WILMER PARTNER RON MESSERLY COMPLETES BOOK ON ARIZONA CONSTRUCTION LAW

Second Book in the Arizona Practice Series by Thomson/West Publishing

PHOENIX (January 12, 2009) — Snell & Wilmer L.L.P. is pleased to announce partner Ron Messerly recently completed a book on Arizona Construction Law. This is Messerly's second book the first being on Arizona Real Estate Law. This latest treatise, Arizona Construction Law Annotated, is part of Thomson/West Publishing's "Arizona Practice Series" and is a compilation of all relevant statutes and regulations on their respective topics, combined with historical developments and modifications to the statutes and case law annotations.

Messerly stated that the book "will be of great interest in value to all who have interaction with the construction industry and government contracting in Arizona." It specifically includes those portions of Arizona's constitutional, statutory, and regulatory framework on the subjects of construction law and government procurement. In addition, Messerly's commentary covers leading case law interpreting and applying the statutory and regulatory provisions relevant to construction law in Arizona.

This work is also part of the Arizona Practice Series, and can be purchased, along with Arizona Construction Law Annotated at <http://west.thomson.com>.
