

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Kasey Broach, Public Relations
kbroach@swlaw.com | 602.382.6019

EXPORT CONTROLS BRIEFING IN TUCSON

The Arizona District Export Council, the Arizona Technology Council, Chase, The Export Practitioner, J.P. Morgan, Microbusiness Advancement Center, Snell & Wilmer, Trade Compliance Solutions, and the U.S. Commercial Service are pleased to present Essential Elements of Export Controls in the Enhanced Enforcement Environment.

Date: Tuesday, May 19, 2009
7:30 - 10:30am (breakfast included)

Location: Pima Community College / Downtown Campus, Community Room
1255 N. Stone Avenue
Tucson, AZ 85709

Cost: $75 / $65 for Arizona Technology Council members

Registration: <http://www.buyusa.gov/arizona/exportbasics.html>

This seminar will provide participants:

- An overview of US export controls: the players, policies and processes with emphasis on compliance and minimizing exposure, liability and risk for you and your organization;
- Hands-on understanding of jurisdiction;
- Discussion of hot topics including brokering, voluntary & directed disclosures, electronic licensing, third-country/dual nationals, dual-use and munitions, deemed exports, education & training opportunities, fundamental research considerations, merger & acquisition due diligence, red flags; and,
- An enforcement update and the latest consequences of non-compliance with lessons learned.

Registrants are also encouraged to register for free one-hour counseling sessions with the workshop presenters.

“This event is extremely timely” said Snell & Wilmer attorney Brett Johnson. “In today’s highly regulated export environment, companies of all sizes need to be aware of the risks associated with exporting to the global market and prepare accordingly.”

For more information about the workshop, please contact Matt Baker at the Arizona Export Assistance Center in Tucson at 670-5809 or mbaker@mail.doc.gov.