

ANDREW F. HALABY ELECTED TO THE UNIVERSITY OF KANSAS SCHOOL OF LAW ALUMNI BOARD OF GOVERNORS

PHOENIX (October 26, 2009) — Snell & Wilmer L.L.P. is pleased to announce that Partner Andrew F. Halaby has been elected to The University of Kansas School of Law (KU Law) Alumni Board of Governors.

The Board serves as the primary voice of the alumni to the law school. Board members represent numerous districts within and outside Kansas. Currently, there are more than 6,600 KU Law alumni living and working across all 50 states and several foreign countries. KU Law alumni at Snell & Wilmer have included, among many others, Frank Snell, the Firm's co-founder.

Halaby focuses his practice on intellectual property litigation and commercial litigation. An experienced trial lawyer, he has also presented and published extensively on a wide variety of legal issues including patent, trademark and unfair competition; civil procedure; evidence; and ethics. Halaby serves as Co-Chair of Snell & Wilmer's Ethics Committee, and in leadership roles with varied bar and community organizations. He also teaches Trademark and Unfair Competition Law as an adjunct professor at Arizona State University's Sandra Day O'Connor College of Law. In addition, he is registered to practice before the United States Patent & Trademark Office.

About Snell & Wilmer L.L.P.

Founded in 1938, Snell & Wilmer is a full-service business law firm with more than 400 attorneys practicing in eight offices throughout the western United States and in Mexico, including Phoenix and Tucson, Arizona, Los Angeles and Orange County, California; Denver, Colorado; Los Cabos, Mexico; Las Vegas, Nevada; and Salt Lake City, Utah. The firm represents clients ranging from large, publicly traded corporations to small businesses, individuals and entrepreneurs. For more information, visit www.swlaw.com.