SNELL & WILMER PARTNER APPOINTED TO SERVICE ACADEMY SELECTION COMMITTEE

Senator John Ensign Taps Gregory A. Brower For Committee Membership

LAS VEGAS (November 2, 2009) — Snell & Wilmer L.L.P. is pleased to announce that U.S. Senator John Ensign (R-NV) has appointed Gregory A. Brower, a partner in the firm's Las Vegas office, to his service academy selection committee.

Sen. Ensign's service academy selection committee is comprised of several volunteers from around the state who gather once a year to interview high school students and recent graduates who are applying for a Congressional appointment to one of the federal service academies, including the U.S. Military Academy (West Point), the U.S. Naval Academy, the U.S. Air Force Academy, and the U.S. Merchant Marine Academy. The committee interviews and ranks the candidates to assist the Senator in making his appointments. Each member of Congress has a similar committee. Interviews are conducted in November.

Brower is a Navy veteran and recently served as the U.S. Attorney for the District of Nevada. He joined Snell & Wilmer as a partner in October. Mr. Brower's practice focuses on complex civil litigation, as well as federal and state criminal investigations and regulatory enforcement actions, corporate compliance matters, internal investigations, and administrative law issues.
