

CYSTIC FIBROSIS FOUNDATION HONORS THREE SNELL & WILMER ATTORNEYS AND SPOUSES

PHOENIX (November 9, 2009) — Snell & Wilmer L.L.P. is pleased to announce that the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation has selected three attorneys, and their spouses among this year's AZ's FINEST Couples.

Adam and Mindy Lang, Jay and Stefanie Layton, and William and Kim Magyar were recently honored at a dinner on November 6th, at the Sheraton Hotel in Downtown Phoenix. Lang is an associate in the firm's Commercial Litigation group, Layton is an associate in the Business & Finance group, and Magyar is an associate in the Labor & Employment group. These Couples were chosen by demonstrating leadership qualities, their willingness to volunteer their time, and the ability to excel in the business, political, and philanthropic community.

The AZ's FINEST Couples program is designed to spotlight Arizona's most influential trendsetters, honoring their professional and charitable accomplishments. Each Couple was nominated by a member of their community, completed an application and then underwent an interview process. The chosen Couples best exemplify philanthropic qualities and, overall have excelled in the community.

Last year's Couples raised more than $60,000 for the Foundation through the AZ'S FINEST Couples events. As part of the honor, each Couple has agreed to raise more than $5,000 for the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation. The Couple who raises the most dollars during the Campaign will receive the "Top Fundraiser Award".

The Cystic Fibrosis Foundation of Arizona, headquartered in Phoenix, is a donor-sponsored nonprofit organization dedicated to finding therapies and a cure for Cystic Fibrosis, while helping to improve the lives of those living with Cystic Fibrosis. Cystic Fibrosis is the number one life-shortening disease of children and young adults in the United States.
