SNELL & WILMER PARTNER DANIEL S. WITTENBERG APPOINTED TO COLORADO BIOSCIENCE PAC BOARD OF DIRECTORS

DENVER (December 23, 2009) — Snell & Wilmer L.L.P. is pleased to announce that partner Daniel S. Wittenberg is a Founding Member and Member of the Board of Directors of the Colorado BioScience Political Action Committee, Inc.

The newly established non-profit Colorado BioScience PAC is a nonpartisan organization that provides bio- and life science companies and their employees a voice with state legislators who make laws and policy that have an impact on the way companies do business.

Wittenberg, who is admitted to practice in California, Colorado, Washington, and the District of Columbia, is a partner in the firm's Products Liability group. His practice is concentrated in representing Medical Device, Pharmaceutical, Biotech, Consumer Product and Heavy Equipment manufacturers in product liability litigation as well as counseling these companies in risk management strategies. He also represents companies in commercial litigation and works with entities in technology transfer and intellectual property matters.

Wittenberg received his bachelor's degree in 1987 from the University of Colorado, Boulder. He then went on to earn his juris doctor from the University of Denver in 1991.
