SNELL & WILMER PARTNER DANIEL S. WITTENBERG APPOINTED TO ADVISORY BOARD FOR LAW360

DENVER (January 20, 2010) – Snell & Wilmer L.L.P. is pleased to announce that Partner Dan Wittenberg has been appointed to Law360’s Product Liability Editorial Advisory Board. Law360 is a leading news source for the legal profession, covering the entire spectrum of legal practice areas.

Law360’s product liability section covers breaking news in mass torts and product liability law and tracks mass torts against the largest 2,000 companies in the world brought in to U.S. federal courts. The editorial advisory board exists to enable leading product-liability professionals to provide guidance to Law360 relating to breaking news, legislation and trends in mass torts.

“Dan has extensive experience and knowledge managing product claims and litigation, making him an important addition to this prestigious group of attorneys,” said Timothy O’Neill, administrative partner of Snell & Wilmer’s Denver office.

As a partner in the Denver office of Snell & Wilmer, Wittenberg concentrates his practice in representing medical device, pharmaceutical, biotech, life science, consumer product and heavy equipment companies in product liability litigation as well as counseling these businesses in risk management strategies. Wittenberg also has served as national counsel for major medical-device manufacturing concerns and regional counsel in mass tort cases. Additionally, he represents companies in commercial litigation and works with entities in technology transfer and intellectual property matters.
