

BRYON BENEVENTO ADMITTED TO AMERICAN COLLEGE OF TRIAL LAWYERS

Salt Lake City, UT (March 16, 2010) — Bryon J. Benevento, a partner in Snell & Wilmer’s Salt Lake City office, has become a Fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers, one of the premier legal associations in America. Founded in 1950, the College is composed of the best of the trial bar from the United States and Canada. Fellowship in the College is extended by invitation only, and only after careful investigation, to those experienced trial lawyers who have mastered the art of advocacy and whose professional careers have been marked by the highest standards of ethical conduct, professionalism, civility and collegiality.

Lawyers must have a minimum of 15 years trial experience before they can be considered for Fellowship. Membership in the College cannot exceed one percent of the total lawyer population of any state or province. There are currently approximately 5,752 members in the United States and Canada, including active Fellows, Emeritus Fellows, Judicial Fellows (those who ascended to the bench after their induction) and Honorary Fellows. The College strives to improve and elevate the standards of trial practice, the administration of justice and the ethics of the trial profession.

Benevento received his law degree from the University of Utah College of Law in 1988, and has worked as a trial lawyer since that time. Bryon has represented clients in trials conducted in Utah, Idaho, Nevada, Arizona, California, Washington, Texas, Pennsylvania, Hawaii and North Carolina.
