

SNELL & WILMER PARTICIPATES IN ACC PANEL ON STATE AND FEDERAL ENFORCEMENT PRIORITIES

DENVER (March 18, 2010) — The Colorado Chapter of the Association of Corporate Counsel (ACC) recently hosted a distinguished panel to examine the top state and federal enforcement priorities affecting corporations, effective strategies for keeping companies from becoming a target and possible solutions for managing matters should they arise. More than 35 Colorado-based legal officers and general counsel attended the presentation and discussion.

The panel consisted of the following representatives and topics:

- John Suthers, Attorney General, State of Colorado (State Enforcement Priorities)
- Greg Brower, Partner, Snell & Wilmer, and Former U.S. Attorney for District of Nevada (Federal Enforcement Priorities)
- Dan Goldfine, Partner, Snell & Wilmer (Responding to Search Warrants and Subpoenas)
- John Atkins, Senior VP, Compliance, First Data Corporation (Building and Implementing an Effective Corporate Compliance Program)
- Tim O'Neill (Moderator), Administrative Partner, Snell & Wilmer, Denver Office

The ACC is the world's largest organization serving the professional and business interests of attorneys who practice in the legal departments of corporations, associations and other private-sector organizations around the globe. ACC promotes the common interests of its members, provides resources to help save time, money and effort, contributes to their continuing education and provides a voice on issues of global importance. With more than 25,000 members in over 70 countries, employed by over 10,000 organizations, ACC's community connects its members to the people and resources necessary for both personal and professional growth.
