

SNELL & WILMER'S RICHARD MALLERY INDUCTED INTO HERBERGER HALL OF FAME

PHOENIX (March 19, 2010) — Snell & Wilmer L.L.P. is pleased to announce that partner Richard Mallery is this year's 2010 Herberger Performing & Broadcast Arts Hall of Fame inductee. Mallery received this recognition on March 18 at the Founder's Celebration for his efforts to establish the theater.

Mallery's commitment to the Herberger Theater dates back more than three decades. In 1979, Mallery was approached to spearhead a project to build a home for performing arts in Phoenix. After accepting the role as Chair of the Theater Study Committee, Mallery helped conduct a feasibility study and develop a creative strategy to raise public and private funds for the building of a theater. Mallery was instrumental in getting both the City and the Herberger family involved in the project. The development took more than nine years to come to fruition.

Mallery, who has been with Snell & Wilmer's Phoenix office since 1964, concentrates his practice on business and real estate transactions. Most recently, his focus has been directed towards break-through science and medical advancement. Mallery received his B.A. from DePauw University, and his M.A. from Cornell University. He then went on to earn his juris doctor from Stanford Law School.
