LAS VEGAS (April 18, 2010) — Snell & Wilmer L.L.P. is pleased to announce that Ray C. Jones, an attorney in the Las Vegas office, has been appointed to the Latin Chamber of Commerce (LCC) Community Foundation Board of Trustees.

The LCC Community Foundation works in conjunction with the Las Vegas Latin Chamber of Commerce to raise funds to support the educational, social, cultural, and philanthropic efforts the chamber offers in the community. The Latin Chamber's programs include the annual Scholarship Program, Career Day, Latino Youth Leadership Program, and the Arturo Cambeiro Senior Center. In the past, the Latin Chamber of Commerce has funded approximately 75 scholarships per year for local students who are college bound. Through the LCC Community Foundation's efforts, the chamber seeks to increase the number of scholarships awarded.

The board is comprised of past officers of the LCC and other individuals committed to supporting the Latino community. Jones has been involved with the chamber for over seven years; four of those years he provided a monthly seminar in Spanish to members of the Latino community concerning legal issues related to starting a small business, among numerous other support activities.
