

SNELL & WILMER PARTNER NAMED TO STATE BAR DISCIPLINARY BOARD

Gregory A. Brower named to Northern Nevada Disciplinary Board

LAS VEGAS (May 7, 2010) — Snell & Wilmer L.L.P. is pleased to announce that Gregory A. Brower, partner in the firm's Las Vegas and Reno offices, has been appointed to the Northern Nevada Disciplinary Board of the State Bar of Nevada.

The Northern Nevada Disciplinary Board consists of a group of both attorneys and non-attorneys who meet regularly in panels of three to review complaints against members of the Bar. It is a volunteer organization wherein members hear a number of disciplinary cases each year, serving as jurors to determine a fair ruling. In order to be named to the board, an attorney must be well-versed in several different areas of law. Brower will initially serve a three-year term on the board and is eligible to serve up to a limit of 12 years.

Formerly the United States Attorney for the District of Nevada, Brower joined Snell & Wilmer as a partner in October. Mr. Brower's practice focuses on complex civil litigation, as well as federal and state criminal investigations and regulatory enforcement actions, corporate compliance matters, internal investigations, and administrative law issues.

About Snell & Wilmer L.L.P.

Founded in 1938, Snell & Wilmer is a full-service business law firm with more than 400 attorneys practicing in nine locations throughout the western United States and in Mexico, including Las Vegas and Reno, Nevada; Phoenix and Tucson, Arizona; Denver, Colorado; Los Angeles and Orange County, California; Salt Lake City, Utah; and Los Cabos, Mexico. The firm represents clients ranging from large, publicly traded corporations to small businesses, individuals, and entrepreneurs. For more information, visit www.swlaw.com.