

SNELL & WILMER HOSTS ‘PAINT THE TOWN...AGAIN!’
ART EVENT FUNDRAISER

LAS VEGAS (June 2, 2010) – Snell & Wilmer L.L.P. hosted the ‘Paint the Town...Again!’ art event on Friday, May 21, to celebrate accomplished artists while giving back to the community. Guests purchased select works of art and a portion of all proceeds benefited the Lance Armstrong Foundation (LIVESTRONG® Foundation) and the American Cancer Society.

‘Paint the Town...Again!’ was the second annual event of its kind hosted by Snell & Wilmer. Firm partners Michael Stein and Steve Yoken, and associate Marek Bute spearheaded the event. Plans are already in place for the firm’s 2011 event.

The artists who participated this year were Jennifer Main, Lisa VanderHill, Kevin Chupik, Lorne Cramer, Susan Barron Trenk, and Heather Hermann.

“At Snell & Wilmer, part of our firm’s credo is to continue our long tradition of community service, leadership and social responsibility,” said Stein. “Through our ‘Paint the Town’ events, we provide local artists with a unique forum in which to showcase their work and help support the invaluable services of local and national charities. We are extremely pleased with the response generated from this year’s event and look forward to reaching an even wider audience as we begin planning for 2011.”
