

SNELL & WILMER ADDS DANIEL FROST AS PARTNER IN DENVER OFFICE

DENVER (June 8, 2010) -- Snell & Wilmer L.L.P., one of the largest full-service business law firms in the western U.S., is pleased to announce that Daniel R. Frost recently joined the firm as a partner in the Denver office. Frost will add depth and experience to Snell & Wilmer's construction practice.

One of the city's foremost construction lawyers, Frost brings more than 30 years of experience in construction claims and transactions to the Denver office. Frost focuses on litigation and claims presentation, claims avoidance and management, construction and engineering contracts and documentation, public contracting matters, as well as the development, administration, and scheduling of projects.

"The addition of Dan Frost to our Denver office is a significant achievement for Snell & Wilmer. Dan is undoubtedly one of Colorado's most well regarded construction attorneys, and we are very excited to welcome Dan to our team," said Tim O'Neill, Administrative Partner of Snell & Wilmer's Denver office. "Dan offers a unique combination of complex construction litigation experience with significant transactional and contracting capabilities. His wealth of experience and leadership in the construction field will be a strong compliment to our western regional presence."

In addition to his professional accolades, Frost is also actively involved in the Denver community. He sits on the Board of Directors for the Colorado Business Committee for the Arts (CBCA), the Denver Area Council for the Boy Scouts of America and is an active supporter of Operation Smile, an organization that provides reconstructive facial surgery to indigent children and young adults.

Before joining Snell & Wilmer, Frost spent 11 years at Holland & Hart's Denver office as a partner. A Denver native, Frost received his law degree from the University of New Mexico. He has spent his entire career in construction law.
