SNELL & WILMER PARTNER SELECTED FOR PRESTIGIOUS ENVIRONMENTAL EDITORIAL ADVISORY BOARD

DENVER (February 9, 2011) – Snell & Wilmer, one of Denver’s largest full-service business law firms, is pleased to announce that partner Lisa Decker has been selected as a member of the 2011 Environmental Law360 editorial advisory board.

The editorial advisory board draws on leading environmental professionals to provide guidance to Law360. The Environmental section covers breaking news in environmental law, litigation and enforcement. The publication tracks litigation involving the largest 2,000 companies in the world, as well as legislative and administrative developments at the state, federal and international levels.

Decker has extensive experience in environmental litigation matters including cost recovery, allocation, citizen suits and toxic torts. She also assists clients in managing environmental risks associated with acquiring, investing in or divesting of environmentally impaired properties, environmental compliance issues and renewable and alternative energy projects.

“This position speaks volumes about Lisa’s expertise in her field” says Tim O’Neill, managing partner for Snell & Wilmer’s Denver office. “We are extremely pleased to hear that her hard work is being recognized on a national level.”
