SNELL & WILMER PARTNER BILL O'HARE JOINS KOCE-TV FOUNDATION BOARD OF DIRECTORS

ORANGE COUNTY (March 2, 2011) – Bill O'Hare, administrative partner in Snell & Wilmer's Orange County office, has recently been elected to the board of directors for KOCE-TV Foundation.

The KOCE-TV Foundation governs Southern California's leading PBS station, PBS SoCal. With the mission to "interactively educate, entertain and enlighten the community," PBS SoCal broadcasts the best of PBS, produces award-winning local programming, and has remained an important educational resource in the community since 1973. Locally owned and controlled, KOCE-TV Foundation has a board of directors that is comprised of a variety of local leaders, from financial institution CEOs to local community organizers, who bring different skills and knowledge to aid in decision making.

"This may be the largest and strongest slate of individuals ever to join the Foundation Board," said PBS SoCal CEO, Mel Rogers. "The wisdom and influence of this group will provide immeasurable strength and power to what was already a very good Board."

O'Hare's practice is concentrated in commercial litigation, arbitration, and mediation including corporate, partnership and trust disputes, franchising, trademark and unfair competition litigation, and business torts. O'Hare earned his A.B. from Loyola College of Maryland and his law degree from The University of California, Hastings College of the Law.
