GREG BROWER ELECTED TO BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE GEORGE WASHINGTON LAW ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

LAS VEGAS (April 25, 2011) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Greg Brower, a partner in the firm's Reno and Las Vegas locations, was recently elected to the Board of Directors of The George Washington Law Alumni Association. The Board serves as the governing body of the law school's alumni association which exists to promote the law school by engaging its alumni in support of the school. Brower is a 1992 graduate of The George Washington University Law School.

Prior to joining Snell & Wilmer, Brower served in a variety of senior government posts. From 2003 to 2004, he was with the U.S. Department of Justice in Washington, D.C. He later served at the U.S. Government Printing Office (GPO), first as Inspector General and then as General Counsel. In 2007, he was appointed as U.S. Attorney for the District of Nevada by President George W. Bush and served in that capacity until September of 2009. Currently, Brower's practice is focused on complex civil and white collar criminal litigation, as well as corporate investigations and administrative law.
