SNELL & WILMER ADDS COMMERCIAL LITIGATION PARTNER TO PHOENIX OFFICE

PHOENIX (June 6, 2011) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Richard H. Herold has joined its Phoenix office as a partner in the firm’s commercial litigation group.

Herold has more than two decades of experience representing clients in complex commercial litigation matters and providing counseling aimed at preventing litigation. He has significant trial experience and also handles appeals, mediations and arbitrations. Herold has litigated cases throughout the United States in a variety of areas, including banking and financial litigation, commercial litigation, real estate litigation, employment litigation, corporate and securities litigation, corporate and partnership disputes and related director and officer litigation, and professional liability defense.

Herold is a member of the Arizona State Bar Association and is serving his third term as Chair of its Fee Arbitration Committee, a position to which he was appointed in 2008 by the Association’s president. In addition, in July 2010 he was also appointed as a member of the State Bar of Arizona’s Ethics Committee. From 2004 to 2009, he served as a Judge Pro Tempore, presiding over jury trials and settlement conferences. He earned his J.D. from George Washington University School of Law and B.A. from Emory University.
