SNELL & WILMER ADDS NEW ATTORNEY TO LOS ANGELES OFFICE

LOS ANGELES (July 27, 2011) Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Anya Salehi has joined the firm's Real Estate and Commercial Finance Group in Los Angeles. Her practice will be concentrated in real estate transactions for the hotel, resort, restaurant and recreation industries.

Salehi previously practiced with the law firm of Paul, Hastings, Janofsky & Walker where she represented owners and developers in the hospitality industry. Her real estate law experience includes assisting clients in the areas of loan modification in connection with loan restructuring, liquor license applications, due diligence on real property assets and franchise and management agreements.

"We are pleased to welcome Anya to our team in Los Angeles," said Cary Jones, Administrative Partner of Snell & Wilmer's Los Angeles office. "Her talents are an important part of our office's growth strategy and will help continue to deliver the best service to our clients in the hospitality industry."

Salehi earned her B.A. in Political Science from the University of California, San Diego and received her J.D. from Loyola Law School. She is also fluent in Farsi.
