TIMOTHY KAY APPOINTED AS CHAIRMAN OF THE ORANGE COUNTY COMMUNITY FOUNDATION BOARD OF GOVERNORS

ORANGE COUNTY (November 11, 2011) – Timothy Kay, partner in Snell & Wilmer’s Orange County office, was appointed by the Orange County Community Foundation (OCCF) as the Chairman of the Board of Governors.

Founded in 1989, OCCF works with donors, strengthens the local nonprofit sector and works to find solutions to community needs. The foundation has granted more than $196 million since inception. In 2011 OCCF ranked as the tenth most active grant-maker among more than 750 U.S. community foundations. The Board of Governors oversees more than $136 million in charitable assets and annual granting of more than $29 million.

“Tim has been a valuable asset to the Orange County Community Foundation’s Board of Governors. He has generously contributed his legal expertise on a wide range of topics and has diligently served on our audit committee. His leadership will play an important role in the board’s strategic planning process and in addressing a broad range of community needs in Orange County in partnership with our donors,” said President Shelley Hoss.

Kay is a Certified Specialist in Estate Planning, Trust and Probate Law, California Board of Legal Specialization. His practice is concentrated in tax, trust, and estate matters with emphasis in estate planning, trust and probate administration, and estate and gift taxation. He employs advanced estate planning techniques, including grantor retained annuity trusts, family partnerships, limited liability companies, charitable remainder trusts, defective grantor trusts, insurance planning, public charities, and private foundations. Tim has experience in trust and estate litigation, and obtains private letter rulings on significant gift, estate, and income tax matters. In addition, he provides advice to non-profit organizations and serves on the boards of the South Coast Repertory Theater, Orange Coast Estate Planning Council and Boys Republic, a private school for troubled youth.
