MICHAEL REYNOLDS PRESENTS ON BANKRUPTCY PREFERENCE LAW: HOW TO AVOID LIABILITY

ORANGE COUNTY (February 16, 2012) – Michael Reynolds, a bankruptcy, insolvency & business reorganization partner in Snell & Wilmer’s Orange County office, presented at a National Association of Credit Managers (NACM) National Packaged Products Suppliers Credit Group’s meeting in San Diego on February 15, 2012. The program covered the elements of a preference and how to defend against one.

NACM is an advocate for business credit and financial management professionals. NACM and their affiliates take great pride in being the primary learning, knowledge, networking and information resource for commercial creditors worldwide. Their mission is to position business credit professionals for success while setting standard of excellence in business credit and financial management.

Reynolds’ practice is concentrated in Chapter 11 bankruptcy, corporate reorganizations, debtor, creditor, creditor committee and trustee representations, creditors’ rights and remedies. His practice also includes judicial foreclosures and receiverships and representation of non-profit public benefit corporations. Reynolds has significant experience in international litigation and judgment collection against foreign and domestic individuals, companies and government entities. He practices at the trial and appellate court level, in both state and federal court.
