SNELL & WILMER ATTORNEY ROGER GRAD APPOINTED TO VETERAN TICKETS FOUNDATION BOARD OF DIRECTORS

ORANGE COUNTY (May 9, 2012) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Roger Grad, partner in the firm’s Orange County office, was recently elected to the Board of Directors for Veteran Tickets Foundation.

Veteran Tickets Foundation (Vet Tix) is a national nonprofit, nongovernmental organization devoted to giving back and saying thank you to the U.S. Military and Veterans. Vet Tix promotes the mission of supporting U.S. Military, Veterans and their families with entertainment, lasting memories, and reintegration opportunities by providing free tickets to sporting events, concerts, and family activities. To date, over 355,000 event tickets have been donated in all 50 states and Washington D.C. The Board of Directors has recently expanded to include Roger Grad as a member.

“I have always been honored by my father’s Naval service in WWII and the sacrifices that the men and women of our military make,” said Grad. “We at Snell & Wilmer, as well as myself are in a unique position where we can help give something back.”

Roger Grad’s practice is concentrated in complex tax and estate planning for high net-worth individuals and business clients. His practice also includes business and finance law, particularly in the formation of limited partnerships, limited liability companies, general partnerships, corporate mergers, corporate dissolutions, and public offerings. Grad counsels individuals and business clients in tax and estate planning issues involving complex claims in state, federal civil trial, and appellate courts, as well as tax, probate, and bankruptcy courts, and alternative dispute resolution forums. Additionally, he practices entertainment law representing clients in regard to entertainment-related agreements and transactions. Grad is a founding board member of the Advocacy Arts Foundation.
