SNELL & WILMER ATTORNEY DONALD ENNIS JOINS ADVISORY COUNCIL FOR THE 3RD ANNUAL STARS OF THE SEASON

PHOENIX (June 29, 2012) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Donald Ennis, a bankruptcy associate in the firm’s Phoenix office, has joined the Advisory Council for the 3rd Annual Stars of the Season fundraising event to benefit the Cardon Children’s Medical Center.

The 3rd Annual Stars of the Season, led by the Advisory Council of Cardon Children’s Medical Center, will be held at 6 p.m. on Saturday, Oct. 27 at the Montelucia Resort & Spa. Stars of the Season is a star-studded fundraising event supporting Cardon Children’s Medical Center. Headlining this year’s event is an all-star band led by Linkin Park front man Chester Bennington, who will be joined by rock legends Dave Navarro (Jane’s Addiction), Billy Morrison (The Cult) and Duff McKagan (Guns n’ Roses) for a special one-time performance. Proceeds from this year’s event will benefit the Pediatric Cardiothoracic Surgery Program at Cardon Children’s Medical Center. This program provides care for children born with congenital heart defects or who develop heart conditions early in life. Cardon Children’s Medical Center is a comprehensive children’s hospital that serves greater Phoenix, the State of Arizona and beyond.

Ennis practices in the areas of bankruptcy, receivership and commercial litigation. He focuses on representing some of the nation’s largest banks, lessors and other financial institutions in complex Chapter 7 and 11 bankruptcy cases, as well as representing state court-appointed receivers. His practice has spanned a wide variety of industries, including residential homebuilding, commercial real estate, commercial mortgage banking, pre-manufactured housing, multi-family housing, video game development, golf courses, sand and gravel mining, water bottling and the fast food industry. Ennis continues to hold active licenses to practice law from both the State Bar of Arizona (2008) and the State Bar of California (2000), and has also appeared in courts in Nevada, Delaware and New Jersey. He earned his J.D. from the University of Michigan Law School and his B.A., cum laude, from University of California, San Diego.
