SNELL & WILMER ATTORNEY NICHOLAS VASKOV PRESENTING AT PRACTICAL GUIDE TO ZONING AND LAND USE SEMINAR

LAS VEGAS (July 16, 2012) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Nicholas Vaskov, an associate in the firm’s Las Vegas office, will be speaking at a National Business Institute seminar addressing zoning and land use issues.

The seminar will take place on August 7 (8:30 am – 4:30 pm PST) at the Gold Coast in Las Vegas. Additional information can be found here.

Vaskov will present vital information regarding adoption and amendment of zoning ordinances and dealing with special zoning issues.

Vaskov has over ten years of experience in a broad range of areas including commercial litigation and transactions, zoning/land use and real property development. His prior experience as the assistant city attorney in charge of development and land use and as acting city attorney for one of the fastest growing municipal governments in the county gives him unique knowledge and rare perspective on the topics being discussed.

Since 1983 National Business Institute has been one of the largest providers of legal and professional education in the nation, serving over two million professionals.
