REBUILDING TOGETHER SOUTHERN NEVADA APPOINTS SNELL & WILMER ATTORNEY JUSTIN R. COCHRAN TO BOARD OF DIRECTORS

LAS VEGAS (August 21, 2012) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Justin R. Cochran, an associate in the Las Vegas office, has been appointed to the board of directors of Rebuilding Together Southern Nevada (RTSNV).

“I look forward to serving on the RTSNV board and contributing to improving the living conditions for Southern Nevada’s low-income homeowners,” Cochran said. “Being active in the community is an important part of Snell & Wilmer’s success in Las Vegas and I feel honored to be giving back through this organization.”

Cochran’s commercial litigation practice primarily concentrates on representing financial institutions in consumer finance and commercial bank litigation. His commercial bank litigation experience includes contractual breach, deficiencies, receiverships, and securities-related actions. His representation of financial institutions involving transactions with consumers covers a large number of state and federal laws and regulations. Cochran also has a white collar defense practice that includes representing corporate and individual clients in both state and federal government criminal and regulatory investigations and enforcement actions.

RTSNV, established in 1994, is the local non-profit of the national organization that provides free home repair and accessibility modification services for low-income Southern Nevada homeowners, particularly: the elderly, people living with disabilities, military veterans and multigenerational families. Services are provided free of charge to qualified homeowners.
