SNELL & WILMER NEVADA PARTNER APPOINTED TO VETERAN SUICIDE TASK FORCE

LAS VEGAS (September 10, 2012) – Greg Brower, a partner in Snell & Wilmer’s Nevada offices, was recently appointed to the newly formed Nevada Veteran Suicide Task Force.

The task force was created by the Nevada Department of Health and Human Services and the Nevada Office of Veterans Services. Its mission is to study the causes of the extraordinarily high suicide rate among Nevada’s veterans, and make recommendations on how to address the problem to state policy makers.

“The suicide rate among Nevada’s veterans, and young veterans in particular, is a pressing concern for our state. I look forward to working with veterans groups, mental health professionals, and others on this critical public health issue,” said Brower.

Brower is a partner in Snell & Wilmer's Las Vegas and Reno offices. His practice is focused on complex civil and white collar criminal litigation, as well as corporate investigations and administrative law. Brower’s almost 20 years of practice includes significant experience as a "first chair" trial and appellate advocate, as well as service at the highest levels of state and federal government. Brower is a veteran of the United States Navy having served as a Surface Warfare Officer.
