PHOENIX TOOLBANK APPOINTS SNELL & WILMER ATTORNEY JULIE MAURER TO THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

PHOENIX (October 8, 2012) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Julie Maurer, an associate in the Phoenix office, was recently appointed to the Board Directors for the Phoenix ToolBank®, a local nonprofit organization affiliated with ToolBank USA that stewards a vast inventory of actual tools for use by charities to advance their missions, increase impact and reduce costs.

ToolBank USA strengthens local communities through the collaborative establishment of ToolBanks across the United States and the provision of infrastructure support to promote consistency and excellence for all local ToolBanks. Available tool inventory includes cordless drills, ladders, rakes and shovels, circular saws and paint trays and more. Through quick and reliable access to large quantities of high-quality tools, each ToolBank transforms volunteerism in its area. ToolBank tools are not available for use by individuals; the ToolBank is a resource for the charitable sector.

Maurer is a civil trial attorney and litigator with extensive experience in bench and jury trials as well as public and private-operated arbitrations. Her commercial litigation practice includes various types of business disputes, including breach of contract and insurance coverage matters. She also defends all areas of tort liability claims, including toxic tort and wrongful death claims. Maurer's transportation practice extends to all areas of carriage, including representing carriers, brokers and intermediaries, handling freight loss and damage claims as well as ensuring the collection of tariff and transportation charges. She has successfully arbitrated numerous labor disputes throughout the country arising out of collective bargaining agreements, including contract interpretation and employee discipline and termination matters.
