OAAA LEGAL SEMINAR WELCOMES SNELL & WILMER ATTORNEY KELLY KSZYWIENSKI AS PRESENTER

PHOENIX (November 29, 2012) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Kelly Kszywienski, an associate in the Phoenix office, recently presented at the 2012 Outdoor Advertising Association of America (OAAA) Legal Seminar in Arlington, Virginia.

The OAAA is the lead trade association representing the outdoor advertising industry. Founded in 1891, the OAAA is dedicated to promoting, protecting and advancing outdoor advertising interests in the United States. With nearly 800 member companies, the OAAA represents more than 90 percent of industry revenues.

At the 2012 OAAA Legal Seminar, the industry’s top legal minds analyzed legal and regulatory issues facing the outdoor industry as it will be confronting legal and regulatory issues surrounding digital implementation, excessive taxation and overreaching regulatory actions. These issues will continue to dominate the outdoor industry’s agenda during the next several years. Additionally, the Legal Seminar provided exceptional networking opportunities with in-house counsel and other practitioners. Kelly focused on current litigation issues and presented on the topic, “Litigating Standing and ‘Intermittency’ in Scenic Arizona v. American Outdoor.”

At Snell & Wilmer, Kelly assists clients in resolving complex commercial disputes through arbitration, mediation and litigation, both at the trial level and on appeal. She has represented individuals, governmental entities and business entities in disputes involving commercial contracts, business torts, the Arizona and U.S. Constitutions, and various state and federal statutory schemes, including state corporate codes, consumer protection statutes, the Arizona Limited Liability Company Act, the Arizona Securities Act, the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, the PSLRA, the Uniform Commercial Code and the Fair Credit Reporting Act.
