LAS VEGAS (December 4, 2012) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Laura Ellen Browning, an attorney in the Las Vegas office, was recently appointed to the State Bar of Nevada Fee Dispute Panel.

Panel members typically handle four claims per year, mediating or arbitrating disagreements between clients and attorneys concerning the fee and/or costs paid.

“It is never fun to be at odds with the attorney you select to work on your case, but choosing the State Bar’s Fee Dispute panel provides a valuable resource for attorneys and clients,” Browning said. “I look forward to providing alternative options to remedy such disputes.”

Browning’s practice focuses on all areas of commercial contract litigation and administrative law. She represents many individuals or entities with significant holdings including developers, financial institutions, contractors, hotel-casino companies, state agencies and other companies in general business disputes and complex commercial litigation.
