

THREE SNELL & WILMER ATTORNEYS CONTRIBUTE TO CHAPTERS ON LEGAL ASPECTS OF DOING BUSINESS IN NORTH AMERICA

PHOENIX (January 14, 2012) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that attorneys Cortland Andrews, Joseph Miller and Zachary Redman contributed to a number of chapters in the 2nd edition of the book, Legal Aspects of Doing Business in North America.

This book provides a survey of the requirements for doing business and investing in Canada and the United States, including state-by-state and province-by-province analysis. Covering nearly all 50 states and 12 Canadian provinces, the annually updated reports are prepared by local business practitioners and offer practical insights into issues relating to selection of form for doing business, incentives, taxation, labor and employment, liabilities and dispute resolution.

Cortland Andrews, business and finance associate in the firm's Salt Lake City office, focuses his contributing article in Utah business. Andrews' practice focuses on the areas of business and finance with an emphasis on mergers and acquisitions, private placements, regulatory compliance and general corporate matters. In addition, he has also assisted companies in their general securities law compliance and corporate governance efforts. Andrews has represented private and public companies and private equity firms across a broad range of industries, including telecommunications, financial services, manufacturing, communications, medical devices and services and feed and cattle.

Joseph Miller, business and finance associate in the firm's Phoenix office, focuses his contributing article in Arizona business. Miller advises companies and their owners in business transactions and securities law matters. He has experience in mergers and acquisitions; private placements and venture capital financings; loan financings, including credit facilities; securities offerings and reporting compliance; entity formations and governance; and general contract negotiations.

Zachary Redman, business and finance associate in the firm's Las Vegas office, focuses his contributing article in Nevada business. Redman advises clients in wide range of corporate matters, including business acquisitions and mergers, corporate governance, owner relations, business structuring, formation and equity offerings. He also advises clients in real estate and secured transactions, including purchase and sales, leasing and the exercise of creditor's rights.

About Snell & Wilmer L.L.P.

Founded in 1938, Snell & Wilmer is a full-service business law firm with more than 400 attorneys practicing in nine locations throughout the western United States and in Mexico, including Phoenix and Tucson, Arizona; Orange County and Los Angeles, California; Denver, Colorado; Las Vegas and Reno, Nevada; Salt Lake City, Utah; and Los Cabos, Mexico. The firm represents clients ranging from large, publicly traded corporations to small businesses, individuals and entrepreneurs. For more information, visit www.swlaw.com.