SNELL & WILMER ATTORNEY MANUEL CAIRO ELECTED TO ROSIE'S HOUSE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

PHOENIX (January 28, 2013) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Manuel Cairo, an associate in the Phoenix office, was unanimously elected to the Board of Directors for Rosie's House: A Music Academy for Children. Members of the Rosie's House Board of Directors provide their business, philanthropic and artistic expertise to Rosie's House. Their service is critical in sustaining the music instruction and mentorship that Rosie's House provides to hundreds of Phoenix-area children each year.

Rosie's House was founded in 1996 to give children from low-income families the chance to experience music in their lives. The academy provides free music instruction and loaned instruments to underserved Phoenix-area students. Through music, Rosie's House inspires social change and helps students develop a commitment to personal and academic achievement.

Manuel Cairo's practice is concentrated on labor and employment, and immigration law matters. He represents employers in single and multi-plaintiff disputes in federal and state courts regarding discrimination, harassment, retaliation, breach of contract, wage and hour, trade secret, wrongful termination, business torts, and other types of employment matters. He also counsels employers on worksite enforcement and immigration-related corporate compliance strategies. He regularly advises employers in developing comprehensive best practices to avoid liability under both federal and state immigration laws. Cairo chairs the firm's Committee on Diversity & Inclusion and is a regular speaker and commentator on current employment and immigration issues. Cairo received his bachelor's degree from the University of California, Los Angeles and his Juris Doctor from the University of Iowa, College of Law.
