

THE 18TH ANNUAL ROCKY MOUNTAIN BANKRUPTCY CONFERENCE WELCOMES SNELL & WILMER ATTORNEY HOLLY SHILLIDAY AS PANELIST

DENVER (February 05, 2013) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Holly Shilliday, counsel in the firm’s Denver office, recently participated on a panel at the American Bankruptcy Institute’s 18th Annual Rocky Mountain Bankruptcy Conference which provided attendees an interactive learning experience led by a faculty of prominent national and regional bankruptcy judges as well as experienced practitioners. The two-day conference was held at the Four Seasons Hotel in Denver, Colorado.

During her presentation, entitled “Into the Depths of the Coal Mines: Over, Under, Sideways, Through-Any Way to Obtain a Confirmation Order and Hang Onto It on Appeal,” Shilliday gave insight into the Chapter 11 plan confirmation process and participated in a mock confirmation hearing before the Honorable Michael E. Romero, a bankruptcy judge from the District of Colorado.

Shilliday is admitted to practice law in both Colorado and California and is an active member of the California Bar Association where she served a three-year term on the Committee for the Administration of Justice. She is also a member of the Colorado and Eighteenth Judicial District Bar Associations, the American Bankruptcy Institute and the International Franchise Association. Shilliday volunteers for Junior Achievement, Wings Over the Rockies Air & Space Museum the Boys & Girls Clubs of Denver and Centro San Juan de Diego. She was recently elected to the governing board of Littleton Academy, a charter school in Littleton, Colorado, and to the board of directors of the Denver Metro Chamber Leadership Foundation.

Shilliday graduated from the University of Denver, where she majored in political science and minored in economics and Spanish. She earned her Juris Doctorate from Pepperdine University School of Law.
