CATHOLIC COMMUNITY SERVICES FOUNDATION ELECTS SNELL & WILMER TUCSON ATTORNEY NATHAN KANUTE TO BOARD

TUCSON (March 6, 2013) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Nathan G. Kanute, an associate in the firm’s Tucson office, has been elected to the Board of the Catholic Community Services Foundation, an organization that works to build philanthropic support for the widespread charitable work of Catholic Community Services of Southern Arizona, Inc. (CCS) through education, donor relationships, community partnerships and stewardship.

Catholic Community Services’ precursor, Catholic Social Services of Arizona was formed in 1933 to provide assistance to residents of the State during the Great Depression. In 1936, the program was expanded to Tucson to better serve the needs of vulnerable residents in the counties of Pima, Pinal, Gila, Cochise, Graham, Greenlee, Santa Cruz, Yuma and La Paz. Today, CCS consists of six agencies and more than 100 programs and services for people of all ages, races and faiths.

Nathan Kanute, who is licensed to practice law in Arizona and Nevada, concentrates his practice on the preservation of creditor’s rights in Bankruptcy Court, State Court and Federal District Court. His experience includes representing creditors in resolving cash collateral issues, lift stay motions, non-dischargeability complaints, claim objections, adversary proceedings and contested plan confirmation trials. Nathan has represented creditor’s interests in Chapter 7, Chapter 11 and Chapter 13 Bankruptcy proceedings. He has also played an integral role in appeals of decisions from the Bankruptcy Court to the Federal District Court. Kanute earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Economics summa cum laude at the University of Arizona and received his Juris Doctor degree summa cum laude from the University of Arizona’s James E. Rogers College of Law.
