

SNELL & WILMER ATTORNEY JACEY PRUPAS APPOINTED TO NEVADA BOARD OF BAR EXAMINERS

RENO, Nev. (March 25, 2013) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Jacey Prupas, an associate in the Reno office, has been appointed to the Nevada Board of Bar Examiners. Her three-year term will begin April 26, 2013. She previously served as a Nevada Bar Exam Grader from 2006 to 2008.

“We want to extend our congratulations to Jacey on her recent appointment to the Nevada Board of Bar Examiners,” said William Peterson, a partner in the Reno office. “I have worked closely with Jacey for several years and have seen first-hand her commitment to the legal profession. Her knowledge and legal experience, along with her Nevada roots, will serve her well in this important work for the State Bar.”

The Nevada Board of Bar Examiners includes 14 members plus two liaisons from the Nevada Board of Governors, writes the questions and then grades the answers for the two bar exams, according to its website. The board also oversees the administration of the bar exam and works closely with the Nevada Supreme Court and the Board of Governors in formulating rules and procedures for admission to the State Bar of Nevada.

Prupas focuses her practice in general commercial litigation. She has experience with all stages of litigation, including pretrial discovery, trial, appellate work and alternative dispute resolution. Prupas’ practice includes representing businesses in all types of contract disputes, complex tort actions and product liability matters. She also has extensive experience with personal injury actions, both for plaintiffs and defendants.

Prupas received both her undergraduate and law degrees from Santa Clara University. Also licensed in California, she is a member of the American Bar Association and the Northern Nevada Women’s Lawyer’s Association, for which she served as a board member from 2005 to 2011. She has been recognized for several years as a Nevada Super Lawyers Rising Star.

The Reno office, located at 50 W. Liberty Street, serves a wide variety of clients in the commercial, real estate, employment, personal injury, white collar criminal, corporate investigations, complex civil litigation and administrative areas of law.
