

SNELL & WILMER ATTORNEY GREG BROWER NAMED TO THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE FEDERALIST SOCIETY'S CRIMINAL LAW & PROCEDURE GROUP

RENO and LAS VEGAS, Nev. (April 12, 2013) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Greg Brower, a partner in the firm's Reno and Las Vegas offices, was recently named to the Executive Committee of The Federalist Society's Criminal Law & Procedure Practice Group.

Founded in 1982, The Federalist Society for Law and Public Policy Studies is one of America's leading think-tanks devoted to the rule of law. The Society's Board of Visitors includes leaders in the law such former Solicitor General Ted Olson, U.S. Senator Orrin Hatch and former U.S. Secretary of Labor Elaine Chao.

"I have been associated with The Federalist Society for more than two decades and I look forward to joining the Executive Committee of the Criminal Law & Procedure Practice Group," said Brower.

Brower is a member of Snell & Wilmer's White Collar Defense and Investigations, Commercial Litigation, and Appellate practice groups in Nevada. Prior to joining the firm, he served as U.S. Attorney for the District of Nevada, and he previously served at the U.S. Department of Justice headquarters in Washington, D.C.

The Nevada offices of Snell & Wilmer serve a wide range of clients in the following practice areas: civil and criminal litigation; administrative law; real estate transactions; bankruptcy; government affairs; employment and labor; gaming; and construction law.
