SNELL & WILMER ADDS THREE ASSOCIATES TO THE PHOENIX OFFICE

PHOENIX (August 30, 2013) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce the addition of three attorneys to the Phoenix office. Jordan Hafen, Jamie Halavais and Tina Smith have joined the firms as associates.

Jordan Hafen focuses his practice in commercial real estate matters, including acquisitions, leasing, dispositions, financing and property management matters. Hafen also has experience in business planning for real estate transactions such as structuring and forming corporations, partnerships and limited liability companies. Hafen received his B.A. in International Relations from Brigham Young University and his J.D. from Arizona State University, Sandra Day O'Connor College of Law.

Jamie Halavais focuses her practice in products liability, insurance defense and general commercial litigation. Before joining the firm, she was an associate at large firms in New York and in Phoenix, focusing on commercial litigation. She has represented clients in litigations large and small, including class action and derivative litigation, breach of contract and breach of fiduciary duty claims, internal investigations, and arbitrations before FINRA and under the UDRP. She is admitted to the bar in Arizona, California and New York. Halavais earned her B.A. in Fine Arts from the University of California, Irvine and her J.D. from the University at Buffalo, SUNY.

Tina Smith has extensive experience in high-density residential and commercial real estate transactions including acquisitions, dispositions and leasing of residential apartment complexes and commercial properties in Arizona, Nevada and California. She has represented buyers and sellers in connection with the acquisition, entitlement, construction and disposition of real property and the negotiation and drafting of purchase agreements, easements and restrictive covenants, commercial leases, conveyance documents, and SNDA agreements. Smith is also experienced in the commercial loan workout and foreclosure processes. She earned her B.A. from Northern Illinois University and her J.D. from DePaul University College of Law.
