SNELL & WILMER WELCOMES TIMOTHY REPPUCCI TO THE TUCSON OFFICE

TUCSON (August 30, 2013) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Tim Reppucci has joined the Tucson office as an associate in the commercial litigation practice group.

Reppucci comes to Snell & Wilmer after working as an associate in a prominent Boston law firm. Previously, he served as a law clerk in the Coconino County Attorney's Office, a New York City teaching fellow at the Brooklyn School for Global Studies, as a team leader and researcher at a trademark search firm in New York City, and as a legal assistant in the Antitrust Practice of a firm in Washington, D.C.

Reppucci is a summa cum laude graduate of the University of Arizona James E. Rogers College of Law. He was elected to the Order of the Coif and received a number of awards, including a Dean's Scholarship; Herbert Herlihy Memorial Award in Law; Thomas Sullivan Antitrust Award; CALI Awards for Excellence in Contracts, Criminal Procedure, Secured Transactions, Legal Malpractice, Copyright and Constitutional Law II; Legal Writing Award for Outstanding Performance in Oral Advocacy; and Persuasive Communication Award for Outstanding Advocate.

Reppucci was a member of the 2010 ABA National Moot Court Team and Moot Court Board. He was a finalist in the Fegtly Moot Court Competition and received the F. Britton Burns Award for Oral Argument. At the University of Arizona, he also served as an Academic Tutor in Contracts & Criminal Procedure and as a Research Assistant to Professor Ellen M. Bublick.

Reppucci holds a Bachelor of Arts degree with a dual major in government and economics from Cornell University. He is not currently licensed to practice in Arizona. Reppucci is admitted to practice in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and the U.S. District Court for the District of Massachusetts.
