BOULDER CITY COUNCIL APPOINTS SNELL & WILMER ATTORNEY CHRISTOPHER LANE TO BOARD OF ZONING ADJUSTMENTS

DENVER (September 9, 2013) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Denver attorney Christopher Lane has been named to the Board of Zoning Adjustments (BOZA) by the Boulder, Colorado City Council. Lane is replacing a departing member this month and his term will run through March 2015.

BOZA hears appeals from developers, architects and builders whose building permit applications have been denied. The board has the authority to modify the application of specific zoning requirements. BOZA consists of five volunteers who are residents of the City. They are appointed to staggered terms and are selected through an in person interview process with the City Council.

“I am excited about this opportunity to put my experience in the real estate, finance and commercial space to use in a way that gives back to my community,” said Lane. “I look forward to working with other Board members to help ensure proper growth and development in Boulder.”

Lane’s practice encompasses business and finance matters, particularly real estate financing transactions. He also provides general corporate counsel to various Colorado based clients including technology companies, manufacturers, commercial landlords and other established Colorado businesses. He is a graduate of the University of Colorado School of Law and currently serves on the Board of Directors for the Boulder County Bar Association.
