ABA SECTION OF ENVIRONMENT, ENERGY AND RESOURCES ANNUAL FALL CONFERENCE FEATURES FRANC DEL FOSSE AS MODERATOR AND PANELIST

PHOENIX (October 21, 2013) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Franc Del Fosse, a partner in the Phoenix office and chair of the firm’s Renewable Energy Industry Group, moderated and presented at a panel during the 21st Annual American Bar Association Section of Environment, Energy and Resources (SEER) Fall Conference in Baltimore, Maryland.

The panel, entitled, “Renewable Energy Development: Challenges, Opportunities and Pay-Offs,” explored the challenges unique to developing geothermal, solar and wind production on public lands. Franc’s presentation focused on the financing of renewable energy projects and the history of incentivizing energy projects in the United States.

SEER is committed to providing members with opportunities to enhance professional skills, stay on top of developments and to participate in dialogue in these substantive areas. It represents more than 10,000 members and keeps them informed of development trends, current court decisions, legislative initiatives and statutes concerning environmental, natural resources and energy law.
