SNELL & WILMER ATTORNEY JAMES M. SUSA PRESENTS TO THE NATIONAL BUSINESS INSTITUTE

TUCSON (October 28, 2013) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Tucson attorney James Susa recently presented at the National Business Institute’s seminar on Nevada Sales and Use Tax in Las Vegas, Nevada.

The seminar, aimed at accountants, attorneys, financial officers, controllers, business and tax advisors, enrolled agents and business owners, focused on best practices when accounting for sales and use tax and how to decipher whether or not a business has nexus in a state as well as identify what products and sales are exempt from sales tax. Susa, one of six presenters at the seminar, presented on two topics: “Exemptions, Deductions, Credits and Incentives,” and “Resolving Sales and Use Tax Disputes.”

The National Business Institute has been a provider of continuing legal education and training since 1983. They are dedicated to providing practical, skill-based CLE seminars and online CLE courses that can be applied to attendees’ daily work. NBI holds live, in-person seminars in all 50 states and Puerto Rico and has one of the largest and most diverse catalogs of legal courses, taught by experienced practitioners with state-specific content and resources.

Susa’s practice is concentrated in the representation of clients in state and local taxation matters in Arizona and Nevada. He is recognized as a tax law specialist by the State Bar of Arizona and has over 20 years of experience in litigating appeals before the Office of Administrative Hearings, State Board of Equalization, Board of Tax Appeals, Tax Court, Court of Appeals and Supreme Court in Arizona, and in the County and State Boards of Equalization, Tax Commission, District Court and Supreme Court in Nevada. Susa is also licensed as a Certified Public Accountant and has been active in the Arizona Society of CPAs, serving on the tax and legislation committees and Board of Directors. Susa is the past Chairman of the Arizona State Board of Accountancy Law Review Committee, State Bar of Arizona Tax Section and the Arizona State Board of Tax Appeals. He has lectured extensively in Arizona and Nevada on property, sales and use tax matters for a variety of organizations including the State Bars of Arizona and Nevada.
