

SNELL & WILMER ATTORNEY DAN WITTENBERG PUBLISHES CHAPTER ON FOOD AND DRUG LITIGATION STRATEGIES

DENVER (October 31, 2013) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Daniel S. Wittenberg, a partner in the Denver office, has authored a chapter in the Thomson Reuters Aspatore Law Book, Inside the Minds: Food and Drug Litigation Strategies, Leading Lawyers on Building Strong Defenses and Adapting to Evolving FDA Regulations.

Wittenberg’s chapter, titled, “Impacts of the FDASIA and Recent Food and Drug Law Litigation,” is one of nine chapters included in the book. The book provides an authoritative, insider’s perspective on effectively representing corporations and manufacturers in defending against food, pharmaceutical and device complaints. Experienced partners from law firms across the nation highlight the intricacies of various food and drug cases, such as those involving labeling issues, class actions and product recalls.

Wittenberg concentrates his practice in representing medical device, pharmaceutical, biotechnology and consumer product manufacturers in product liability litigation as well as counseling these companies in risk avoidance/management strategies, recalls and regulatory matters, including those involving the FDA and CPSC. He is a Co-Chair of the firm’s Medical Device and Pharmaceutical Industry Group and serves on the firm’s Attorney Development Committee. Wittenberg is listed in The Best Lawyers in America[®], Product Liability Litigation – Defendants, and has been named by LMG as a Life Sciences Star.
