

SNELL & WILMER PARTNER GREG BROWER PRESENTS AT THE 2013 NEVADA STATE BAR GAMING LAW CONFERENCE

LAS VEGAS (Nov. 12, 2013) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that partner Greg Brower was a panelist at the 2013 Gaming Law Conference presented by the Gaming Law Section of the State Bar of Nevada on Nov. 8 at Red Rock Casino Resort Spa in Las Vegas.

Brower participated on a panel titled “The Evolution of Regulated Internet Gaming,” moderated by Lars Perry, vice president of Intellectual Property at Bally Technologies, Inc. Other panelists included Paul Mathews, founder and chief operating officer of Playstudios, and Scott Milford, vice president – New Media at Aristocrat Technologies, Inc. The panel discussed the recent evolution of both online gambling and the social casino phenomenon, and the policy and regulatory challenges related to each.

Brower is a partner in Snell & Wilmer's Reno and Las Vegas offices. His practice is focused on administrative and regulatory matters, civil litigation, white collar defense, and corporate investigations. Brower’s almost 20 years of practice includes significant experience as a "first chair" trial and appellate advocate, as well as service at the highest levels of state and federal government. He currently serves in the Nevada Senate where he is the Ranking Member of the Judiciary Committee, and was recently appointed to the Legislature's Interim Committee on Gaming Technology. He previously served in the U.S. Department of Justice in Washington, DC and as U.S. Attorney for the District of Nevada. Brower has received the preeminent AV-rating by Martindale-Hubbell and has been named to The Best Lawyers in America®, 2014.

Brower is also an adjunct professor at the UNLV William S. Boyd School of Law and is a member of the National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws, the Washington Legal Foundation’s Legal Policy Advisory Board; the American Inns of Court, the National Association of Former United States Attorneys and the American Bar Association.

The Nevada offices of Snell & Wilmer serve a wide range of clients in the following practice areas: civil and commercial litigation; administrative law; real estate transactions; finance; corporate and tax; bankruptcy; government affairs; employment and labor; gaming; and construction law.
