

SNELL & WILMER ATTORNEY GREG BROWER SPEAKS AT NCLGS WINTER MEETING

RENO (January 21, 2014) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Reno Partner Greg Brower recently spoke at the National Conference of Legislators from Gaming States (NCLGS) Winter Meeting in Hollywood, Florida.

Founded in 1995, NCLGS is dedicated to promoting sound gaming public policy and provides meetings that offer state legislators a dynamic learning environment to discuss and debate current gaming issues in an unbiased format.

Brower participated in two panels at the Winter Meeting, moderating one discussion titled “Recent Developments in Fantasy Sports: From Social Pastime to Legal Quagmire?” and focused on the legal issues surrounding the increasingly popular and profitable fantasy sports business. He also participated in a panel discussion of internet gambling and the issue of interstate compacts titled “From Intrastate to Interstate Wagering: The ABCs of Internet Gaming Compacts.”

Brower’s practice is focused on complex civil and white collar criminal litigation, as well as corporate investigations and administrative law. His almost 20 years of practice includes significant experience as a "first chair" trial and appellate advocate, as well as service at the highest levels of state and federal government. Brower is a recognized expert on Nevada gaming law and Internet gambling. In addition to being a partner at Snell & Wilmer, he serves in the Nevada Senate where he is the Ranking Member of the Judiciary Committee.
