

SNELL & WILMER ATTORNEY BROCK WORTHEN APPOINTED TO SERVE AS BOARD MEMBER OF THE UTAH BOYS & GIRLS CLUBS OF SOUTH VALLEY

SALT LAKE CITY (February 19, 2014) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Salt Lake City attorney Brock Worthen has been appointed by the Boys & Girls Clubs of South Valley to serve on its Board of Directors.

The purpose of the Boys & Girls Clubs of South Valley is to promote the social, educational, health, leadership and character development of the youth in its community. The nonprofit organization strives to instill a sense of belonging, usefulness, influence and competence. Programs are designed to provide boys and girls with opportunities to explore interesting and constructive activities that channel their energy into healthy pursuits.

“I am honored to serve as a board member of the Boys & Girls Clubs of South Valley,” said Worthen. “I look forward to working with my colleagues to ensure our youth have a safe and enriching environment in which to learn new skills and begin building a bright future.”

At Snell & Wilmer, Worthen focuses his practice on bankruptcy and commercial litigation. He represents public and private entities from a broad range of industries in a variety of issues arising from bankruptcy disputes and complex business litigation.

Worthen received his Juris Doctor from the University of Chicago, and a Bachelor of Science degree in economics from the University of Utah.
