

HERBERGER THEATER CENTER ELECTS SNELL & WILMER ATTORNEY
CHRISTOPHER COLYER TO ITS BOARD OF DIRECTORS

PHOENIX (April 18, 2014) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Phoenix attorney Christopher Colyer has been elected to serve on the board of directors for the Herberger Theater Center.

Built in 1989 to support and foster the performing arts in Phoenix, the Herberger Theater Center is a non-profit 501(c)(3) organization that is a premier performance venue, arts incubator, and contributor to the cultural and educational development of the Valley. Home to the Arizona Theatre Company and the Center Dance Ensemble, approximately 175,000 patrons, including 30,000 school-aged children, are served by the Center each year.

At Snell & Wilmer, Colyer's practice is concentrated in both transactional and litigation matters in the areas of environmental, utilities, real estate, and construction law. His environmental practice includes representing clients in federal, state, and local permitting and litigation matters, including air quality, hazardous waste, water quality, underground storage tank, and Superfund compliance. Colyer also assists clients with electrical transmission, telecommunications, and wastewater regulatory compliance. His construction and real estate practice includes representing owners and contractors in construction defect litigation and advising clients on zoning, green lease, local government, and contractor licensing issues. Colyer also focuses on renewable energy regulation and development, including permitting and licensing of solar and wind energy facilities. Colyer is a member of the Active 20-30 Club of Phoenix and recently served on the board of the Arizona Myeloma Network.

About Snell & Wilmer

Founded in 1938, Snell & Wilmer is a full-service business law firm with more than 400 attorneys practicing in nine locations throughout the western United States and in Mexico, including Phoenix and Tucson, Arizona; Los Angeles and Orange County, California; Denver, Colorado; Las Vegas and Reno, Nevada; Salt Lake City, Utah; and Los Cabos, Mexico. The firm represents clients ranging from large, publicly traded corporations to small businesses, individuals and entrepreneurs. For more information, visit www.swlaw.com.

###