

GEORGE WASHINGTON LAW ALUMNI ASSOCIATION INVITES SNELL & WILMER ATTORNEY LINDSEY MARTINEZ TO SERVE AS BOARD MEMBER

ORANGE COUNTY (May 2, 2014) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Orange County attorney Lindsey Martinez has been invited by the George Washington Law Alumni Association (GWLAA) to serve on its Board of Directors for a three-year term.

The GWLAA exists to promote The George Washington Law School by engaging its alumni in the activities of, and in support of, the school. The organization is involved with student-alumni relations, alumni events and organizations, and career and professional development.

At Snell & Wilmer, Martinez concentrates her practice on business, franchise, intellectual property and construction litigation in state and federal court. She represents both large and small businesses in intellectual property and other litigation matters, including trademark, trade secret, unfair competition, patent, breach of contract, fraud, business dissolution and various business torts. Lindsey is fluent in Spanish and Portuguese and is proficient in Japanese. She is a member of the firms' Women's Initiative and is active in pro bono work assisting indigent non-immigrant victims of crime.

Martinez received her J.D. from The George Washington University Law School and her B.A. from University of Connecticut.
