

WESTMARC ELECTS SNELL & WILMER ATTORNEY ERIC SPENCER TO BOARD

PHOENIX (May 23, 2014) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Phoenix attorney Eric Spencer has been elected to the board of directors of the Western Maricopa Coalition (WESTMARC), a public-private partnership comprised of the 15 cities and towns, business community and the educational sector in the West Valley of Greater Phoenix.

WESTMARC is the premier organization committed to enhancing economic development and promoting quality of life in the West Valley.

Spencer's legal practice is concentrated in commercial litigation with emphasis in construction litigation, government contracting, and political and election law. On the construction side, Spencer has represented owners and developers, lenders, design professionals, sureties, general contractors, subcontractors, and material suppliers in a wide range of litigation in state and federal courts, including the U.S. Court of Federal Claims. In addition, he has represented candidates, consultants, PACs, political parties, corporations, municipalities, trade associations and other tax exempt organizations in various political and election-related matters in the State of Arizona.

Spencer deployed as an infantry officer during Operation Iraqi Freedom and earned his law degree from Duke University and master's degree in public administration from Harvard University.
