

ASIAN PACIFIC HEALTH CARE VENTURE BOARD WELCOMES SNELL & WILMER ATTORNEY MARJORIE WITTER

LOS ANGELES (June 5, 2014) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Los Angeles attorney Marjorie Witter has been elected by Asian Pacific Health Care Venture, Inc. (APHCV) to serve on its Board of Directors.

APHCV’s mission is to be the medical home for patients by providing personalized, quality health care services in a culturally accessible manner. It strives to provide quality medical and wellness services in a caring and considerate manner. APHCV focuses on Los Angeles County communities and offers care in several different languages, including Spanish, Tagalog, Thai and others. It works to maximize patients’ insurance plans and offer financial arrangements for patients who may require assistance with their medical health and wellness expenses. Its goal is to “empower each and every patient...with the ability to live with independence and harmony.”

At Snell & Wilmer, Ms. Witter practices intellectual property counseling and litigation. She has experience with patent infringement matters in various fields, including secure systems design, internet postage technology, network monitoring systems, cryptography, fiber optic filters, mechanical engineering and biotechnology. Ms. Witter also handles cases involving trademark infringement, unfair competition and misappropriation of trade secrets. She has represented companies in patent litigation and intellectual property matters in front of several federal district courts, the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board, the U.S. International Trade Commission and the Federal Circuit Court of Appeals.

Ms. Witter received her J.D. from Emory University School of Law and her B.S. from University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, Kenan-Flagler Business School.
